

Television/Movie Features

Song "Vegas" featured in
CW TV's reality show "Plain Jane"

Songs "Vegas", "Let's Get Crazy", "Pretty Mama", "All Over The World" featured in
CW TV's reality show "Remodeled"

Song "Vegas" featured in Pantene Pro V advertising campaign

Song "Vegas" featured on NBC Sports and CBS
Sports

Song "Pretty Mama" featured in Netflix's original series "Hemlock Grove"

Song "Pretty Mama" featured in the ABC Family original film "Christmas Bounty"

TRE HOUSTON

Tre Houston is a music engineer, producer, rapper, songwriter, and publisher based out of both Nashville, TN and Austin, TX. He has written and produced songs featured in television and film with his most recent features including songs in the Netflix Original show "Hemlock Grove", the ABC TV movie "Christmas Bounty", a Pantene Pro V ad campaign, and CBS and NBC Sports segments.

Tre has performed in front of thousands at coffee shops, bars, clubs, and other venues across in the country including winning the Belmont university "urban/Pop Showcase" in 2011 and being a feature in 2012's "Best of the Best Showcase".

In addition, in 2008 Tre won Muse's Muse Magazine's Club Song of the Year Award for his song "What Happened? (Movin')" and this year was a semi-finalist in the international songwriting competition.

/TrehoustonMusic

/Trehouston

/Trehouston

/Trehouston

TreCD.com

Contact: Rowland W. Folensbee
Email: trehouston.info@gmail.com Phone: (713) 501-8915

Awards/Achievements

Awarded Muse's Muse "Club Song of the Year" 2008 for the song "What Happened? (Movin')"

Winner of the Belmont University Urban/Pop Showcase

Urban/Pop Feature of the Belmont University Best Of The Best Showcase

Endee Magazine Artist of the Week April 2013

International Songwriting Competition Semi-Finalist 2013

